

We proudly return with the reissued Compact Automatic Camera MF-2 in our second episode.

In a world where everything is vying for our attention, we should be more cautious on how we are spending our time to live the life we pursue. Photography is of the essence in encapsulating and preserving the ephemeral presence and precious moments of our lives. Patience is a virtue in photographer, particularly with film cameras, to wait for the right moment of snapshot.

Designated for captivating worthwhile moments, MF-2 invites you to take a moment to think, feel and immerse in the details of the surroundings in order to perfect film photo. In the process of seeing life through the lens, be aware of the presence, slow down and connect the pieces in life.
